What is the University of the Third Age?

The U3A is a voluntary co-operative of people whose aim is lifelong learning and enables the members to share their common interests and activities in an informal way. The U3A is not a teaching organisation. There are no examinations and no qualifications.

Who can join the U3A?

Anyone who is either retired or no longer in full time paid employment can join. There is no minimum age. If you are about to retire find out what we could offer you also what you could offer us.

Who runs the U3A?

The simple answer is the members. U3A Bexley is part of an international self-help movement in which each National body is autonomous and within each National body the local body is also self-governing.

What are the activities of the U3A Bexley?

We are part of the National U3A which currently has well over 300,000 members meeting in 1,000 locations in the UK. Third Age Matters, our national magazine is posted directly to you five times a year.

In Bexley we currently have over 55 groups covering a wide variety of interests and activities including:

Where and When We Meet.

Our monthly meetings are on the second Thursday of the Month in the Roberts Hall, behind Christ Church, on Bexleyheath Broadway at 1:45pm for 2pm start.

How much does it cost?

The Subscription is £12 per member. If you join after 1st October your subscription will carry through to the end of the following year. Membership entitles you to join as many interests groups and other activities as you wish. You will receive full details on joining. Some popular groups may have a waiting list.
